February 10, 2017

Dear Elementary Parents and Families,

As we have learned this year, Oregon weather can be unpredictable. This winter has been exceptional with regard to days missed due to snow and ice. On Wednesday, February 8, the Centennial School Board approved new calendars that help make up some of the days missed because of inclement weather. While there were no ideal solutions, due to the extreme circumstances, we will be letting go of calendar items that we all feel are important to our educational program in order to recoup lost instructional time.

Amongst the changes:

- Next Friday, February 17 is now a Regular School Day.
- Conference days, March 23 & 24 are now Regular School Days.
- Four Wednesdays, May 24, May 31, June 7 and June 14 will be full school days with no late starts on those dates.
- The last day of school will now be Friday, June 16.

These changes will allow elementary schools to add back a total of five (5) instructional days for Grades K-6 for the 2016/2017 school year.

To see all of the changes, please reference the revised school calendar, attached to this letter. You can also go to the District Calendars page on the Centennial School District website: <http://csd28j.org/district-calendars/>.

Your flexibility and understanding during these extraordinary circumstances is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dr. Paul Coakley
Superintendent
Centennial School District
